CORONER'S INQUEST.

Dr. Moore, the coroner, held an inquest last night at W. H. Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment for the purpose of ascertaining the facts in connection with the drowning of Ernest Fisher, whose body was found in the dock at the foot of Queen street Wednesday afternoon. The jury was composed of Messrs. Maurice Wilkins (foreman), Stephen F. Gill, S. C. Swain, Harry Kirk, W. Dent and James A. Johnson.

Officer Gill testified to the finding of the body. He said it was discovered by two small boys, who, after giving the alarm, ran off and did not give their names.

Cornelius Myers, colored, stated that he saw Fisher on last Sunday evening. The deceased had been talking to the foreman on a tugboat at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf. He later accompanied witness up Princess street as far as Lee. Fisher went south on Lee street. It was then about 7 o'clock. Witness saw him no more. Myers said Fisher was not drinking at the time.

Edward Carter then took the stand. He described the clothing worn by the deceased when last seen. Witness saw Fisher about midnight last Saturday night. Had not seen him since.

William Sheppard followed. Fisher had been boarding with witness. He described the clothing worn by Fisher Sunday morning, the last time he saw him. His description of the apparel was identical with that on the body. He said Fisher showed no evidence of having been drinking. Witness never saw him drunk at home.

Howard Washington was the next witness. He said he saw the deceased last Sunday evening on W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf. It was about 7 o'clock when he saw him. Witness left Fisher on the wharf. The deceased said he was going aboard the tugboat Rosalie. Deceased was not drinking at the time. Washington stated that he made an engagement with Fisher to meet him later at a pool room in the northeastern section of the city. Witness went to the place, but could not find Fisher, and, upon inquiry, was told that he had gone toward a saloon in the neighborhood. This was between 7 and 8 o'clock. Witness proceeded to the place indicated, but failed to find Fisher. Washington described the clothing worn by the deceased which tallied with the statements made by the other witnesses.

Charles Jackson was the last witness. He testified to seeing Fisher about 7 o'clock Sunday evening. He said he was sitting in a doorway at the corner of Princess and Fairfax streets. He also described the clothing worn by the deceased at the time.

The jury subsequently retired and was later adjourned until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Jos. Lee, colored cook on the tug Eugene, a non-resident, is held as a witness before the coroner's jury tomorrow afternoon.

CARDINALS vs. ALEXANDRIA ATHLETICS.

The final game between the Cardinals and Alexandria Athletics to be played on the North 4th street grounds tomorrow at 4 o'clock is certain to excite the admirers of these young athletes. The saying that "practice makes perfect" no doubt is true in every respect, and will be fully demonstrated when these lads are in action on the diamond for the ending of the baseball season in this city for the year 1910. The wise heads of both teams claim to have many surprises in store for their opponents, and, judging from the hard work that their star batteries have been indulging in during the past week and the earnest practice of all the players for their respective clubs, there will be no dull moments during the afternoon as the game may run into extra innings before the championship is won. A large crowd is expected to be present to help their favorites on to victory by cheering words and timely suggestions. Ladies are respectfully invited to attend the closing game as the special guests of the Cardinals and Alexandria Athletics. The batteries will probably be as follows: Cardinals—Patterson and Pitts; Alexandria Athletics—Sullivan and Burrell or Miller.

MR. SMITH'S HORSES WON.

Mr. Courtland H. Smith, who sent his string of racing horses to the Toronto races, has received word to the effect that his horses have won seven straight races and money exceeding $4,000. His mounts were ridden by Lucas, three races; Nebuchadnezzar, two races; Tourney, one race, and Ossage, one race. Mr. G. R. Thompson, also of Warrenton, won a first with Jimmy Lane, and Smith's Nebuchadnezzar ran second in this race.

THE LIBRARY.

After the 1st of October the Alexandria Library will not be open in the morning. Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3 to 5; Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 7 to 9; the hours in which books can be exchanged, and at the same hours the reading room is free to the public.

ELEVATOR IN THE POSTOFFICE.

Work preliminary to placing an elevator in the postoffice building in this city has been commenced, and within a short time this convenience will be in operation. The need of an elevator in the building has long been felt. The United States Court occupies the third floor, and it is a tiresome climb to the upper story to those connected with that tribunal, as well as the many who are compelled to attend its sessions. By the time the court convenes the elevator will be in service.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning.

TO DEDICATE HOME.

Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, R. P. O. Elks, formally Enter Their New Home October 3. Elaborate Programme Prepared for the Occasion.

As from the acorn springs the mighty oak, so Alexandria Lodge of Elks has grown from a membership of 25 at its institution in 1902 to proportions unparalleled in the history of any fraternal order in this city—numbering in its fold at the present time 345. Enlisted under the banner of the benevolent organization are many of the city's business interests, the representative men of our city and vicinity. But principles, not men, appeal to the rising generation, and the fundamental principal of this most excellent institution—Charity, that virtue which endureth much and suffereth often, has loaned its powerful aid to the wonderful increase in membership made by Alexandria Lodge during its few years of existence. The lodge of Elks in this city has gone farther than by laws and regulations required. It has sought out poverty and squalor and has succeeded in bringing sunshine and gladness in homes where there was naught but despair, and where death would have been its welcome as the flowers in May, so great was the need. But firmly believing in the teachings of the good book—the Bible—"That inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these, My children, ye did it unto Me," the organization has pursued the even tenor of its way, and gone about doing good, irrespective of past or present conditions and with no expectation of reward. But the duty of an Elks' Lodge is not charity alone. It is a character builder, not on sand, for the faults of a brother is buried in the sand, but the determination of the order is to place a man on a plane where society and citizenship will be glad that he existed. By living up to the principles of the Elks' organization, he is a better man and able at all times to represent the home and his city's interests. Following the teachings of the organization builds character, protects the honest and industrious and frowns upon the loafer and the immoral.

THE NEW BUILDING.

On the front of the building in a niche prepared for it is mounted a life size bronze elk. The attitude the statue depicts is that of the animal, ever alert, in anxious trim, from which the order takes its name.

DESCRIPTION OF BUILDING.

The building is of modern colonial construction of hand-made brick, thoroughly up-to-date and fire proof in its entirety. The basement is for club purposes entirely and will consist of billiard room, card room, locker rooms and toilet; heating arrangements on this floor.

First floor—Parlor and toilet, library and secretary's room and largest auditorium in the city.

Second floor—Ante room toilet room, committee and property rooms, in the back part of the building on this floor; over the main auditorium is the handsomest large room in this section of the country. Its beautiful features consist of modern mahogany furniture, and heavy velvet carpet. The entire building will be brilliantly lighted with electricity and heated with steam, and taken all in all it is as cozy and as comfortable a structure as was ever designed by man.

The handsome stone work was subcontracted by Wm. Chaney's Sons and adds beauty on account of the excellent workmanship.

The plumbing was done by our fellow-townsmen Mr. Jos. C. Gates.

Architect—Wagner and Hamilton, of Washington.

Builder—James W. Devers.

Building committee—J. W. Bales, R. S. Barrett, Howard W. Smith, Thos. W. Robinson, A. H. Oehlert, F. M. Hill, Dr. W. M. Smith, A. Pohl and R. E. Knight, the latter substituted after the death of Mr. Zoro Hill.

PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES

OCTOBER 3, 1910.
Afternoon—3 to 6:30 p. m.—Solos by Alexandria's best singers, including Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mrs. Wm. Woods, Mrs. Thomas Hulshuf and Mr. Kenneth Ogden, interspersed with music by Prof. Leon Cohen's orchestra of Washington.

At 8 p. m.—Dedication of Elks' Home, services by officers during which a few short speeches will be made, to be followed by an address by Hon. C. C. Carlin, past exalted ruler of Alexandria Lodge.

After the programme of exercises dancing will begin and continue until exhausted nature is compelled to seek sweet repose or until an anxious parent, husband or wife calls to see if anything serious has happened.

The dedication committee is as follows: Jas. W. Bales, chairman, Howard W. Smith and R. S. Barrett.

Ladies' Reception Committee—Mrs. J. W. Bales, chairman; Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mrs. Theo. Ale, Mrs. John Rice, Miss Mayer, Mrs. F. C. Spinks, Mrs. R. S. Barrett, Mrs. Windsor Demaine, Mrs. Thomas A. Fisher, Mrs. H. Friedlander, and Mrs. T. B. Dunbar.

The piano loaned for this occasion was kindly loaned by Mr. John M. Reid, representing the Alexandria branch of the popular music dealers, Sanders & Stayman.

The present officers of Alexandria Lodge of Elks are: Exalted ruler, Howard W. Smith; esteemed leading knight, R. S. Barrett; esteemed knight, R. S. Barrett; esquire, Geo. T. Caton; chaplain, Rev. Edgar Carpenter; secretary, Walter M. Donnelly; treasurer, David E. Robey; tiler, Thomas Downey; trustees, L. E. Shuman, C. B. Marshall and Thomas Chaney.

Men live and die. In some cases there is something gone, but nothing missing, for perhaps such person traveled in a sphere where silence was golden, especially when the time for the entertainment of his guests came when an elk meets a brother, the thought paramount in his mind is to remember the obligations he has taken and act accordingly. In this manner the order has grown, and today is one of the largest and most influential in the world.

The last meeting of the ladies in charge of the reception opening the Elks' new home on October third was held last evening. Everything that could be done to make the occasion an enjoyable one has been attended to. About a thousand invitations have been sent out and the guests will have the pleasure of hearing several beautiful vocal solos rendered by local talent. Those who have most generously responded to the committee in charge of the programme are: Mrs. William Woods, Mrs. Thomas Hulshuf, Mr. Kenneth Ogden, Mrs. H. Friedlander and Mrs. Jacob Brill; instrumental selection, Miss Brill; readings, Mr. Fred Birrell. In addition there will be a splendid orchestra throughout the entertainment. The committee of ladies are Mrs. James Bayles, chairman, and Mesdames Jacob Brill, J. H. Rice, F. C. Spinks, Windsor Demaine, Thomas Dunbar, T. A. Fisher, C. A. Duffey, T. B. Ale, H. Friedlander and Miss Mayer.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE TONIGHT.

Tonight at eight o'clock at the Second Presbyterian Church the pastor, Rev. J. R. Sevier, will give a lecture on mission work in Korea. The talk will be illustrated with stereopticon slides, many of which are beautifully colored by Japanese and American artists. This lecture has been given in eighteen churches in northeastern Virginia, always bringing forth the most favorable comment. The life, manners and customs of the "Hermit Nation" are peculiar and strange to Americans. The great revival which is sweeping over that land, as well as the recent political annexation to Japan, make Korea a land of great interest to the world. The lecture tonight is public and free. A free-will offering, however, for foreign missions will be taken during the service.

W. C. T. U.

The twenty-eighth annual convention of the Virginia Woman's Christian Temperance Union convened in Portsmouth on the 27th instant with Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, of Lincoln, president of the organization, in the chair. More than two hundred delegates are in attendance. It is expected that the most interesting convention of the organization held as matters of interest are to be acted upon and plans for future work decided. The delegates representing Alexandria are Mrs. Fred C. Matthews, Miss Alice DeVaughn, Mrs. Lillie Henderson, Mrs. Frank Carey, Mrs. Carrie Nowland and Mrs. Amy C. Weech. The last named is superintendent of young people's work.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Stephen Timney has returned from a two-weeks visit to New York. Mrs. Walter D. Addison and her daughters, Miss Sallie Addison and Mrs. Bettie Walter, were in the city today.

Mrs. Joseph R. Sevier, accompanied by her two little children, Virginia and John, has returned from a visit to her old home in St. Louis. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. James E. Love.

Judge C. E. Nicol's daughters and son have returned to Alexandria to attend school, after spending the summer at their home here. [Manassas Democrat.]

Mr. H. F. McAden and family, of Jacksonville, Fla., have returned home after spending the summer with Mr. Aden's sister, Mrs. Julius S. West, on north Columbus street.

Bishop Kinsolving, of Brazil, will preach the opening sermon of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the chapel of the seminary. Bishop and Mrs. Kinsolving are guests of their brother-in-law, Rev. Dr. August Crawford, dean of the seminary.

Col. and Mrs. Arthur Herbert have returned to their home, near this city, after a visit to their daughter, Mrs. John Hoad.

OLD AND RELIABLE STAND.

Mr. Aaron Katz's boot and shoe store, at the southeast corner of King and Royal streets, is one of Alexandria's most prominent institutions, the people of this city and the surrounding country having purchased footwear at this place during the past forty years. Mr. Katz, the present proprietor, keeps a large and varied stock, and the durability of his goods and moderate prices are satisfactory to his many customers. All in want of footwear, especially parents whose young ones are to be properly shod for the cool weather are now advancing, should inspect the goods which are being offered at this old and reliable stand.

THRILLING PICTURES.

The most thrilling picture ever thrown on the canvass will be that of "Western Justice" at the Opera House tonight. A chance of a lifetime to see a great sight. This is one of the many good features of tonight's show. In the vaudeville you will find Miss Dumond, the operatic singer, who is a number one, and Handel, the juggling fiend, who is par excellence, especially in his comedy. But the whole show is good, so what's the use.

DEATH OF MICHAEL KENNEDY.

Mr. Michael Kennedy died at his home, 801 south Washington street, last night of typhoid fever. The deceased leaves a widow and six children. Mr. Kennedy was 51 years old. He was a native of King George county, but had resided in Alexandria for the past thirty years. He had for a long time been employed in Henry K. Field & Co's lumber yard and was respected by all who knew him. This is the second death in the family during the past few weeks, an infant child having died ten days ago.

PROPERTY SALES.

It is understood that Gen. R. G. Smith has sold the property "Holland Hall," in Fairfax county, below this city, formerly the property of Mr. Egbert Thompson, to a gentleman from the north who will make the place his home with his family.

Mr. B. F. Board, president of the Board-Armstrong Company, of this city, has purchased from the heirs of the late Charles N. Oritenton the property at the northeast corner of Washington and Oronoco streets and will make it his home.

INSTALLATION.

Rev. J. W. Tweton will be installed as pastor of Emanuel Lutheran Church in this city on Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The installation services will be conducted by Rev. Messrs. Schraeder and Wenchell, of Washington.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

The Washington-Virginia Railway Company, recently chartered by the State Corporation Commission with a capitalization of $3,000,000, of which Mr. M. E. Church, of Falls church, is president; Mr. L. L. Northup of Clarendon, treasurer, and Mr. F. E. Parker, of Falls Church, secretary, has purchased the Falls Church Electric Railway, and Mt. Vernon Electric Railway, which companies will be merged with that of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company on October 12th, and after that date will be operated under the latter charter. This charter also provides for the building of a road from Vienna to Bluemont. While it is not certain that this construction will be undertaken immediately, the acquisition of the Falls Church and Mt. Vernon road gives the new company an entrance into Washington city, and it is stated on reliable authority that improvements and extensions are contemplated in the near future. The Falls Church road will be double tracked a part if not its entire length. The road recently surveyed between Richmond and Washington will, it is expected, connect with this road. Advertisements of notices of meeting of the stockholders of the three companies to be held on October 12 will be seen in another column in the Gazette.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mt. Vernon Council, D. of A., will meet tonight.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of fall and winter millinery to be opened at Mrs. E. A. Proctor's on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

If these price don't hypnotize you those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages and Puddings surely will. They're actually the only kind worth eating.

Nervous Collapse

It is generally the result of worry or overwork. Nature will in time repair the damage done, but nature often needs assistance. Not only must the nerve forces be restored, but the system must be nourished and strengthened.
